

Prairie Village Arts Council
Wednesday, October 9, 2019
5:30 P.M.
Prairie Village City Hall – 7700 Mission Road
Multi-Purpose Room

Lacking a quorum, and before the meeting was called to order, Dan brought up a discussion of this upcoming Friday's State of the Arts show. The group decided that food could be set up in the multi-purpose room; there would be one bar at the receptionist's desk, cash bar only, and a tent out front for welcoming guests. Dan said he already had 1,600 "people's choice" votes. There are 61 artists in the show.

At 5:50, Brooke Morehead called the meeting to order. In attendance were Julie Flanagan, Al Guarino, Julie Hassel, Sheila Evans, Shelly Trewolla, Betsy Holliday and Dan Andersen. Bonnie Limbird arrived later.

The Agenda approval and Consent Agenda approval followed, covering last month's minutes and switching Gallery lighting from florescent to LED at a cost not to exceed $400.

Brooke 's report on Monday's City Council Meeting included praise for Sarah VanLandyt's presentation regarding the National Arts and Humanities proclamation of October being the official month of celebration; the subdivision of one lot into three in Prairie Village; and glass recycling and fuel composting.

Under Ongoing Business, Dan reported that the website for FOTA applications was up and running, and that that David Tai would be moving all to our web server except for the actual application. Julie Flanagan remarked that this would make things easier for Kathy Clark, her co-worker on the FOTA project.

Gallery storage changes. We will rethink the two outside storage sheds. For now, the council will have complete access to the cabinet in the multi-purpose room and in the vending room, both with keys exclusively for our use. Shelly is sewing covers for the 9 display cabinets, which will be stored at Dan's. When Paul is caught up with his school responsibilities, we will discuss Second Friday Logo and branding.

Dan says Café for 2020 exhibits will close the 29th of October. Following individual picks of artists by council members online, selection of 2020 artists and the artists with whom they will be shown will occur on Wednesday the 6th of November following the November Arts Council meeting.

Dan has written an overview of the Art of the Special Olympics on artspv.org. Dan will be the contact for this event.

Under New Business, for Group Events all artists must apply individually. This means that the senior artists group which used to exhibit as a whole with their own judge may not do this for a given month, but must apply individually to our own senior Arts Group. Also under New Business, The committee approved an additional $2070.00 to Wan Security for another 6 months our further hosting/web development which will be delivered at the discretion of our Marketing Committee.

There being no further business, Brooke adjourned the meeting at 6:45.

Planning Committee as a Whole

Event Reports: Al and Julie gave a review of the September Exhibit, and Sheila reviewed last month's Chamber in Chamber. Both events were noteworthy, although Sheila would like to have made more money.

Planning: After some discussion, the Marketing Committee set a date for the next meeting, Friday October 18th at 6:00 p.m. at Al and Julie's house.

Julie Flanagan distributed packets to be delivered to schools for FOTA participation.

Dan said our new web address was going to be webmail.artspv.org. Username will be first name, password will be announced.

There being no further business, the group disbursed at 7:30 for some members to gather again for food and drink.
